Industries and Labour Department

Mormugao Port Trust

Notification No. MPT/IGA(92)/79

Amendment to the Mormugao Port Employees' (Pension and Gratuity) Regulations, 1966.

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 28 read with section 124(1) and (2) of the Major Port Trusts Act, 1963 (38 of 1963), the Board of Trustees of the Mormugao Port Trust, hereby makes the following regulations further to amend the Mormugao Port Employees' (Pension and Gratuity) Regulations, 1966, namely:—

1. (1) These Regulations may be called the Mormugao Port Employees' (Pension & Gratuity) (Second Amendment) Regulations, 1979.

(2) They shall be deemed to have come into force with effect from the first day of January, 1979.

2. Insert the following as second proviso after the note in the first proviso of sub-regulation (i) of regulation 78 of the Mormugao Port Employees' (Pension and Gratuity) Regulations, 1966 (hereinafter referred to as the said Regulations) namely:—

"Provided that an employee who applied for commutation of pension within one year of the date of retirement on superannuation will not be subjected to medical examination. Application for commutation of pension under this proviso will be made after the date of retirement and the commutation shall become absolute, that is, the retired employee shall become entitled to receive the commuted value on the date on which his application is received by the Head of Department. An employee who has applied for commutation of pension under this proviso, will have no option to withdraw his application. The reduction in the amount of pension on account of commutation shall become operative from the date of receipt of commuted value of the pension by the pensioner or three months after the issue of the authority asking the pensioner to collect the commuted value of the pension by the pensioner by the Accounts Officer whichever is earlier. This date will be entered in both parts of the Pension Payment Order by the disbursing Officer."

3. Insert the following sub-regulation (7) below sub-regulation (6) of regulation 53 of the said Regulations, namely:—

"53.(7)(i) The amount of family pension in respect of class III & IV employees shall be determined in accordance with the Table below with effect from 1-1-1979.

Pay of the employee	Amount of monthly family pension
a) below Rs. 400/-	30% of pay subject to a minimum of Rs. 60/- and a maximum of Rs. 100/-.
b) Rs. 400 and above but below Rs. 1200.	15% of pay subject to a minimum of Rs. 100 and a maximum of Rs. 160/-.
c) Rs. 1200 and above	12% of pay subject to a minimum of Rs. 160 and a maximum of Rs. 250/-.

Note: "Pay" for the purpose of this regulation means the emoluments as specified in regulation 49 including the enlarged definition of pay as approved vide Board Resolution No. 473 dated 16-11-1973.

(ii) Periodical relief on pension will be allowed for every 20 points increase in the 12 monthly average of CPI (1960 Series) over and above the CPI on which the employee was paid variable D. A. at the time of retirement at the rate of 4% of his pension upto the CPI point upto which the relief is allowed by Central Government from time to time for its pensioners. If the Government makes any modification in the formula of periodical relief payable to Government Pensioners, suitable adjustment in these rates will be made.

(iii) Where an employee/worker dies while in Service after having rendered not less than 7 years continuous service the rate of family pension payable for a period of 7 years or till the date on which the deceased employee would have attained the age of 65 years, had he survived, whichever period is less, shall be equal to 50% of the pay last drawn or one and half times the family pension otherwise admissible, whichever is less. For this purpose, the pay will be as defined in the case of Central Government employees but will include piece rate earnings, incentive payments, premium payments and other such payments under payment by Results Schemes. The pension payable thereafter will be at the rates laid down in Clause (i) above.

(iv) The dependents of the deceased employee already in receipt of family pension will also be allowed the benefits of above liberalisation in this sub-regulation with effect from 1-1-79. Necessary adjustments in the pensionary benefit in respect of employees who retired between 1-1-1969 and 31-12-1973 on account of difference in CPI number on which their wages were based will be made on the basis of formula to be worked out by Central Government.

4(a) Substitute the following for the existing Regulation 50 of the said Regulations, namely:—

"50. Average emoluments shall be determined with reference to the emoluments drawn by him during the last ten months of his service.

Note: This is effective from 1-3-1976 in respect of Class I & II employees retiring on or after 29-2-1976 and effective from 1-1-1979 in respect of Class III & IV employees retiring from 31-12-1978."

(b) Insert the following explanation 6 after explanation 5 below Regulation 50 of the said Regulations, namely:—

"6. In the case of employee/worker eligible to payments under any type of payments by Results Schemes, the period of authorised leave other than Casual Leave authorised absence or period under suspension during the period of 10 months prior to date of his retirement should be disregarded in the calculation of the average of 10 months emoluments and equal period spent on duty before the last 10 months shall be included."

(c) Substitute the words "ten months" for the existing words "three years" wherever they occur in explanation 1, 3 and 4 below regulation 50 of the said Regulations.

5. Substitute the following for the existing regulations 46 of the said Regulations, namely:—

"46(1) In the case of an employee retiring in accordance with the provisions of these regulations before completing qualifying service of ten years, the amount of service gratuity shall be the appropriate amount as set out in part (a) of the Table I appended to these Regulations.

(2) (a) In the case of an employee retiring in accordance with the provisions of these regulations after completing qualifying service of not less than ten years, the amount of pension shall be the appropriate amount as set out in part (b) of the Table I appended to these Regulations.

Provided that in the case of Class I/II employee retiring in accordance with the provisions of these regulations after completing qualifying service of not less than ten years, the amount of pension shall be the appropriate amount as set out in Table III appended to these Regulations.

(b) Notwithstanding anything contained in Clause (a), the amount of invalid pension shall not be less than the amount of family pension admissible under sub-regulation (1) or sub-regulation (2) or sub-regulation (7) of regulation 53 as the case may be.

(3) The amount of retiring pension shall not exceed 30/80ths of average emoluments subject to a maximum of Rs. 8,100 per annum.

However in respect of Class I/II employees, the amount of retiring pension shall not exceed 30/80ths of average emoluments subject to a maximum of Rs. 12,000 per annum.

Provided that in no case shall the pension be less than Rs. 25/-.

(4) In case an employee retires on superannuation, retiring, invalid or compensation pension on or after 1st March, 1970, and if the amount of pension calculated in accordance with the regulations in force at the time of his retirement, is less than forty rupees per month, the same shall be raised to forty rupees per mensem.

(5) In the case of a pensioner who is in receipt of pension as on 1-3-1970 of less than Rs. 40/- per month, the same shall be raised to Rs. 40/- per month with effect from 1st March, 1970.

(6) In respect of Class III & IV employees retiring on or after 31-12-1978, periodical relief on pension will be allowed for every 20 points increase in the 12 monthly average of CPI (1960 series) over and above the CPI on which the employee was paid variable Dearness Allowance at the time of retirement at the rate of 4% of his pension upto the CPI point upto which the relief is allowed by Central Government from time to time for its pensioners. If the Central Government makes any modifications in the formula of periodical relief payable to Central Government pensioners suitable adjustments in these rates will be made.

6. Substitute the following for the existing Regulation 34 of the said Regulations, namely:—

"34. An invalid pension may be awarded on retirement from the Board's service to a person who by bodily or mental infirmity is permanently incapacitated for the Board's service.

Where an employee holding a Class III or IV post on a lower scale of pay or in the case of a worker employed under any payment by Results Schemes/Piece-rate Scheme is offered a job where he will not be eligible to any payment under such scheme, on account of any medical disability, accident etc. as an alternative to being discharged/removed the Central Government Orders, whether pension may be worked out separately for the earlier period at the subsequent period, will apply."

7. Substitute the following for the existing Regulation 12 and 13 of the said Regulations, namely:—

"Commencement of qualifying service:

12. Subject to the provisions of these regulations, qualifying service of an employee shall commence from the date he takes charge of the post to which he is first appointed either substantively or in an officiating or temporary capacity.

Provided that officiating or temporary service is followed without interruption by substantive appointment in the same or another service or post.

Provided further that service rendered before attaining the age of eighteen years shall not count except for compensation gratuity."

"Conditions subject to which service qualifies:

13(1) The service of an employee shall not qualify unless he is substantively appointed to the services of the Board and his duties and pay are regulated by the Board, or under conditions determined by the Board.

(2) For the purpose of Sub-regulation (1) the expression "service" means service under the Board and paid by the Board from the Revenue administered by the Board but does not include service in a non-pensionable establishment unless such services is treated as qualifying service by the Board.

(3) In the case of an employee belonging to Central Government or a State Government or a Major Port is permanently transferred/appointed to the service of the Board, the continuous service rendered under the Central Government or State Government or Major Port in an officiating or temporary capacity, if any, followed without interruption in substantive appointment, or the continuous service rendered under that Government in an officiating or temporary capacity, as the case may be, shall qualify subject to the conditions determined by the Board.

Explanation: The service rendered to the predecessor administrations will count in full as service under the Board subject to such service being continuous and without any break or interruption, and no gratuity having been paid for the period by the W. I. P. or Southern Railway and if paid, subject to the refund and to the extent of refund of any benefits received in the form of employer's contribution to the Contributory Provident Fund, including Special Contribution."

8. Substitute the following for the existing regulation 10 of the said Regulations, under the heading "Misconduct or Inefficiency", namely:—

"Compassionate Allowance:

10(1) An employee who is dismissed or removed from service shall forfeit his pension and gratuity.

Provided that the authority competent to dismiss or remove him from service may, if the case is deserving of special consideration, recommends compassionate allowance for the sanction of the competent authority not exceeding two-thirds of pension, or gratuity or both which would have been admissible to him if he had retired on compensation pension.

(2) A compassionate allowance sanctioned under proviso to sub-regulation (1) shall not be less than the limit specified in sub-regulation (4) of Regulation 46.

(3) The compassionate allowance granted under this regulation shall be treated as pension for purpose of commutation under these Regulations."

9. Substitute the following regulation 47 for the existing regulation 47 of the said Regulations, namely:—

"47(1)(a) An employee, who has completed five years qualifying service and has become eligible for service gratuity or pension under Regulation 46, shall on his retirement be granted death-cum-retirement gratuity equal to one-fourth of his emoluments for each completed six monthly period of qualifying service subject to a maximum of 15 times the emoluments.

(b) If an employee dies while in service after completing five years' qualifying service, the amount of death-cum-retirement gratuity shall be equal to 12 times of his emoluments or the amount as determined under clause (a) whichever is higher and it shall be paid to his family in the manner indicated in sub-regulation (1) of Regulation 47A.

Provided that the amount of death-cum-retirement gratuity payable under this regulation in no case, exceed twenty four thousand rupees.

Provided further that in the case of Class I and II employees, the existing maximum limit of 15 times the emoluments shall be raised to 16½ times the emoluments and the maximum monetary limit of Rs. 24,000 shall be raised to Rs. 30,000.

(2) If an employee who has become eligible, for a service gratuity or pension dies within five years from the date of his retirement from service including compulsory retirement as a penalty and the sums actually received by him at the time of his death on account of such gratuity or pension including ad-hoc increase, if any, together with the death-cum-retirement gratuity admissible under sub-regulation (1) and the commuted value of any portion of pension commuted by him are less than the amount equal to 12 times of his emoluments, a residuary gratuity equal to the deficiency may be granted to his family in the manner indicated in sub-regulation (1) of Regulation 47A.

(3)(a) If an employee dies in the first year of his qualifying service, a death-cum-retirement gratuity equal to two times of his emoluments at the time of his death shall be paid to his family in the manner indicated in sub-regulation (1) of Regulation 47A.

(b) If an employee dies after completion of one year of qualifying service but before completing five years of qualifying service, the amount of death-cum-retirement gratuity shall be equal to six times of his emoluments.

(4) The emoluments for the purpose of gratuity admissible under this regulation shall be subject to a maximum of one thousand eight hundred rupees per mensem, and shall be reckoned in accordance with regulation 49.

Provided that if the emoluments of an employee have been reduced during the last ten months of his service otherwise than as penalty average emoluments as referred to in regulation 50 may, at the discretion of the pension sanctioning authority, be treated as emoluments.

Provided further that in the case of Class I and II employees the maximum emoluments for the purpose of death-cum-retirement gratuity of Rs. 1800 per mensem prescribed shall be raised to Rs. 2,500 per mensem.

(5) For the purpose of this regulation and regulation 47A and 48, family in relation to an employee means:—

i) Wife or wives including judicially separated wife or wives in the case of a male employee.

ii) husband including judicially separated husband in the case of female employee.

iii) sons including step sons and adopted sons.

iv) unmarried daughters including step daughters and adopted daughters.

v) father { including adoptive parents in the case
vi) mother { of individuals whose personal law permits adoption.

vii) brothers below the age eighteen years including step brothers.

viii) unmarried sisters and widowed sisters including step sisters.

ix) married daughter, and

x) children of pre-deceased son."

10. Insert the following new regulation 47A with a title "Persons to whom gratuity is payable" below the existing regulation 47 of the said Regulations, namely:—

"Pension to whom gratuity is payable:

47A(1)(a) The gratuity payable under the regulation 47 shall be paid to the person on whom the right to receive the gratuity is conferred by means of a nomination under regulation 48.

(b) If there is no such nomination or if the nomination does not subsist, the gratuity shall be paid in the manner indicated below:—

i) If there are one or more surviving members of family as in Clauses (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) of sub-regulation 48, to all such members in equal shares:

ii) If there are no such surviving members of the family as in sub-clause (i) above, but there are one or more members as in clause (v), (vi), (vii), (viii), (ix) and (x) of sub-regulation (1) of regulation 48, to all such members in equal shares.

(2) If an employee dies after retirement without receiving the gratuity admissible under sub-regulation (1) of regulation 47, the gratuity shall be disbursed to the family in the manner indicated in sub-regulation (1).

(3) The right of female member of the family, or that of a brother of an employee who dies while in service or after retirement to receive the share of gratuity shall not be affected if the female member marries or remarries, or the brother attains the age of eighteen years, after the death of the employee and before receiving her or his share of the gratuity.

(4) Where gratuity is granted under regulation 47 to a minor member of the family of the deceased employee, it shall be payable to the guardian on behalf of the minor."

11. Insert the following new regulation 47B with the title "Lapse of death-cum-retirement gratuity" below the new regulation 47A of the said Regulations, namely:—

"47B. Where an employee dies while in service or after retirement without receiving the amount of gratuity and leaves behind no family, and

a) has no nomination, or

b) the nomination made by him does not subsist, the amount of death-cum-retirement gratuity payable in respect of such employee under regulation 47 shall lapse to the Board."

12. Substitute the following for the existing regulation 48 of the said Regulations, namely:—

"Nomination:

48(1) An employee shall on his initial confirmation in a service or post, make a nomination in one of the forms A to D, as may be appropriate in the circumstances of the case, conferring on one or more persons the right to receive the death-cum-retirement gratuity payable under Regulation 47.

Provided that if at the time of making the nomination

i) the employee has a family the nomination shall not be in favour of any person or persons other than the members of his family, or

ii) the employee has no family, the nomination may be made in favour of a person or persons, or a body of individuals whether incorporated or not.

(2) If an employee nominates more than one person under sub-regulation (1) he shall specify in the nomination the amount of share payable to each of the nominees in such manner as to cover the entire amount of gratuity.

(3) An employee may provide in a nomination —

i) that in respect of any specified nominee who pre-deceases the employee or who dies after the death of the employee but before receiving the payment of gratuity, right conferred on the nominees shall pass to such other person as may be specified in the nomination.

Provided that if at the time of making the nomination the employee has a family consisting of more than one member, the person so specified shall not be a person other than a member of his family.

Provided further that where an employee has only one member in his family, and nomination has been made in his favour, it is open to the employee to nominate alternate nominee or nominees in favour of any person or a body of individuals, whether incorporated or not;

ii) that the nomination shall become invalid in the event of the happening of the contingency provided therein.

(4) The nomination made by an employee who has no family at the time of making it, or the nomination made by an employee under the second proviso to Clause (1) of sub-regulation (3) where he has only one member in his family shall become invalid in the event of the employee subsequently acquiring a family, or an additional member in the family as the case may be.

(5) An employee may, at any time cancel a nomination by sending a notice in writing to the authority mentioned in Sub-Regulation (7):

Provided that he shall, alongwith such notice, send a fresh nomination made in accordance with this regulation.

(6) Immediately on the death of a nominee in respect of whom no special provision has been made in the nomination under Clause (1) of sub-regulation (3) or on the occurrence of any event by reason of which the nomination becomes invalid in pursuance of Clause (ii) of that sub-regulation, the employee shall send to the authority mentioned in sub-regulation (7) a notice in writing cancelling the nomination together with a fresh nomination made in accordance with this regulation.

(7)(a) Every nomination made (including every notice of cancellation, if any, given) by an employee under this regulation, shall be sent to the Accounts Officer through the Head of Department.

(b) The Accounts Officer shall immediately on receipt of the nomination referred to in sub-Clause (a), countersign it indicating the date of receipt and keep it under his custody.

(c)(i) The Accounts Officer may authorise his subordinate Officers to countersign the nomination forms of the employees.

(ii) Suitable entry regarding receipt of nomination shall be made in the Service Book of the employee by the Head of Department before it is sent to the Accounts Officer.

(8) Every nomination made and every notice of cancellation given, by an employee shall, to the extent that it is valid, take effect from the date on which it is received by the Accounts Officer.

13. Insert the following Clause (g) after the existing note below Clause (f) to regulation 49 of the said Regulations,

"(g) In respect of Class III and IV employees retiring from service on or after 31-12-1978 the term "emoluments" means the pay which the employee was receiving immediately before retirement and shall include —

(i) Pay, other than special pay granted in view of his personal qualifications, which has been sanctioned for a post held by him substantively or in an officiating capacity, or to which he is entitled by reasons of his position in a cadre; and

(ii) technical pay, special pay and personal pay; and

(iii) Dearness Allowance/Variable Dearness Allowance as admissible from time to time, piece-rate earnings, incentive payments, premium payments and other such payments under payment by Results Schemes; and

(iv) any other emoluments which may specially be classed as pay by the appropriate authority."
